MEETYOO

meetyoo has created highly customizable virtual event experiences for 20+ years

The meetyoo conferencing GmbH was founded in 1999. From the outset we have been offering telephone and web conferences as well as audio and web events.

Just a short time later, we were also offering webcasts. ubivent, our subsidiary since 2016, invented the virtual fair platform in 2009. Focusing on this business, we have organized multiple virtual fairs from various industry sectors. With customers like BASF, John Deere, MAN, Microsoft, Roche and SAP, we are among the world's leading virtual event providers. In addition, numerous small and midsize companies are among the clients of the award-winning IT company.

meetyoo is a leading provider of digital events and virtual conferences in Europe. We connect people all over the world. More than 5,000 hours of digital events and conferences are conducted daily via our systems and made available in over 80 countries thanks to state-of-the-art technology. The company has been TÜV-certified as a conference provider for 10 years - the ISO/IEC 27001:2013 certificate recognizes meetyoo for the highest standards in the field of information security.
