

LANGHOF®

Studio for architectural design

We show that it is possible to design aesthetically fascinating and inspiring buildings and cities that set new standards for the ecological transformation process and are still economically successful. This is the key for the future.

LANGHOF® Studio for architectural design has its own unique signature. The multi-award winning and individual buildings are all classics of modern architectural design. Architecture from the LANGHOF® Studio captivates through harmony, beauty and the careful use of resources. For a lifetime. And beyond.

— LANGHOF is a full-service provider of customised architectural design and project concepts with a strong commitment to quality and service

— We have a proven track record in the design of highly sophisticated landmarks such as the “Upper West”, right next to Berlin Memorial Church

— The company focuses on pre-conceptualisation, design and planning, building permits and overall artistic direction
